WICHITA MARKETS

The neceipts of Stock at the Wichite Union Stock Yards for the Past 24 Hours Were: Cattle, 184; Hogs, 1699; Shipments: Cattle, 75; Hogs, None, WICHITA, Kan., June 22.

Receipts of cattle were fair while the quality was not of the best. A large por tion of the butcher offerings were halffatted stock and not of the class demanded. It is generally conceded that heifers and grassed fatted cows have reached their lowest mark. Some fair to good stockers were sold today at $3, but they had been contracted for some days previous and would not have reached that figure on today's market. The shippers sold at $3.50 were the best for sometime. Altogether the market can be quoted as steady, but not beeming or active.

The quotations here presented are to give the shipper an idea of the general range of prices. The various classes and grades sell within the limits of these quotations, according to the quality of discipars and the siate of the daily markets. These quotations are only changed when there has been a permanent change in the general market. The representative anies should be referred to to set the only fluorisations.

REPRESENTATIVE SALES The following are the representative sales of cat-cut the yards today: Description

The hog receipts were good, the advanced price bringing to the market at this place a much larger number than it was believed would be offered, owing to the greatest wheat harvest ever gleaned in southern Kansas, being in progress. The tops sold today at $4.90 which would tend to show that there was an advance of 19 cents over yesterday's price, but these figures were reached by an improvement of the quality of hogs and not in an advance of price. The hogs today were of a superior class than those offered during the previous days of the present week The market opened a shade lower, but grew active and bouyant during the day and remained steady up to the close of yesterday's prices. Dold and Whittaker took everything in the swine line that was offered and the pens were cleaned at the close of the day.

Stienkirchuer & Co., of Newton brought in a load of hogs today and selling them at a good figure, visited the cattle department, and bought a load of cattle, taking them back home with them.

C. H. Smith, cattle buyer at the yards, wants his triends to distinctly understand that he is not the Charley Smith who was fined in the police court for carrying deadly weapons. He says that his mouth is the only weapon he carried, and as for shooting it off occasionally, there is nolaw against it.

Charles Campbell, formerly of the stock yards at this place, but now connected with the Fort Worth Packing company, was shaking hands with his many friends

A new styled telephone has been placed between the cattle scales and the hog scales at the yards. It is patented by A. C. Taylor and does not require holding anything to the ear to catch the sound. A person standing in the room can hear distinctly both parts of the conversation. Besides being an improvement over the Bell patent, it comes much cheaper. the two phones and wire only costing $5.
